In a book I found on the history of Lynchburg VA there are references to a Quaker family from the South River Meeting where John Fowler and Ann Fowler have births from 1775 to 1790 of children Mary b. 1775, William b. 1778, John, Christopher b. 1782, Nancy, David & Judith (twins), and Thomas b. 1790. If you happen upon any later John Fowlers from Lynchburg I would appreciate any information you have. Dave

Dear Lucy:

So pleased to hear from you and it is certainly the same Hardman line: Tho, I do not know your Smith line, at first I thought you were working on the Elizabeth Hardman Smith, who m. Calab. But on the Hardman line we surely can help each other.

In Sept, I spent a week at the Historical Society of Pa. with two goals in mind- to read the handwritten Scrapbook on the Hardmans and search for Peter Waggoner; b. ca 1750- d. 1799 in Philadelphai, Pa. Who I found in Drapers Mss. last summer and I found him in Pa. he was a shoe maker just like the ref. stated.

This Scrapbook; Gem-Me 59-has the same info. on the Hardmans as we have, suggesting Peterman Hardtmann as the origional spelling, Peter Hardman b. 1745 -Ger. and wife were both buried in Old Harmong Cemetery, above old Harmong Church on ole Berlin Road- 1½ miles from Jane Lew, Lewis Co. W. Va. We spent two days there in 1979.

I have a picture of Charlotte Lazier (Lasier) Hardman's stone is very weathered, soft sandstone, b. 1748-d. Nov 1835- 87 yrs. at home on Jess's Run, Hackers Creek, Lewis Co. Va. - LDS film #464944 Harrison Co. Vitals, Part #3. Peter's stone was broken and laying by Charlotte 's and just about unreadable, but on the film they had d. 1827 and 81 yrs. So thank your for the death date of Peter, the day and mo.. I had something on everyone of the ch. of Peter and Charlotte Hardman except Daniel so was delighted he was your line. I didn't even knowif he was the oldest or the youngest or what.

① ⊕ Elizabeth Hardman. b. 1774, who m. Caleb Smith who made split-bottom chairs and lived on deviding ridge of Hughes Fork and Big Skin Creek Harrison Co. Va. (Lewis Co.-1816) I do not have any of their children, I believe some book stated Caleb was b. Warren Co. Ohio. But when did they move there,? this would account for no info on them in Lewis co. records.

Peter Hardman Jr. b. Hardy Co. Va. m. bond, 13 Aug 1797.-~~cem~~ lic.m.5 Dec 1797 by. Jos Cheuvront. Harrison Co. Va. to Morget Hacker, b. 27 Dec 1776, Hackers Creek, dau. of John Hacker and Margaret Steeth. 2nd wife Sarah Adams Edge-b.28 Aug 1786- in Blountsville, Tenn. widow with 2 sons, d. 28 Nov. 1875

⑤ Henry Hardman, b. 1 May 1780-d. 3 Oct 1870. 90 yrs. 1st. wife Elizabeth Hacker, (sister of Morget Hacker) m. 27 Sept. 1808- Harrison Co. Va. by Jos Cheuvront. 2nd. wife Juliana Rhienhart- m. 14 Apr. 1815, Harrison Co. Va by John Mitchell.

④ Jacob Hardman, b. ca. 1778- m. 20 Dec. 1808 to Elizabeth Ann Coon, Harrison Co. Va. is all the info. I have on Jacob.

Now I will try and explain this as best I can: Have you ever read or are you aware of the Waggoner Massacre of 7 May 1792 ? Our lines are 3 and 6 where Hardmans married two children of John Waggoner, Elizabeth and Peter. Father John Waggoner, b. 1752- White-Marsh, Montgomery Co. Pa. and mother Margaret Bonnett, b. ca. 1760 and massacred in 1792- May 7 with 4 small sons on Jesses Run, Harrison Co. Va. at this time the three older ch. Elizabeth, Mary and Peter were taken captive by the Indians. The girls were home 12 yrs. – 11 yrs 6½ yrs.
by the Greenville Treaty, 1795, but Peter remained with the Indians for 20 years.

③ John Hardman, b 1777- d. ca. 1864, m. 21 Nov 1798, Elizabeth Waggoner who was b. 5 Nov. 1779 - d. 1 Feb, 1854, 74 yrs. both bur. Georgetown, Mt Gilead Cem. Lewis Co. Va. 13 Ch. 2 d. in infancy, 2 d. in their teens, 9 lived and married, 1 dau. Elizabeth
David + Daniel –
(There are several who say John was married before Elizabeth, but I have found no ref. to this.) However John was a minister of the M.P.C. in Lewis co. Justice of Peace, and a gunsmith, lived on Little Skin Creek.

⑥ Catherine Hardman, b. 26 Jan 1784, probably on or Hardy Co-Va. Jesses Run, d. 2 Apr 1867, 83 yrs. buried in Ole Harmong Cem. 1st M. James Hyde (Hide) jr. m. 20 Mar. 1801 had 3 ch. Isaac, John, + Charlotte Hyde. 2nd M. Peter Waggoner, b. 13 Mar 1787, d. 26 May 1879. 93 yrs. M. 4 Mar. 1814., Harrison Co. Va. by Wm. Hacker. John Waggoner foumd Peter living with the Indians around 1812, and it's a long sad story, for both Peter and Catherine, they married and lived on Millstone Run, and had 2 sons, William, b. 1816 and Perry Green b. 1822 . And I feel 2 dau. Anna, and Susannah, b. 1824. However I have no proof of this. My husband Marvin's line comes on down from Perry Green Waggoner to Elias Marion Waggoner, Lee Elias Waggoner to Marvin. Both Peter and Catherine are buried in Old Harmony Cem. She must of had a very hard life, considering everything. I have a will for Peter Hardman-1827, let me know if you need a copy, also pictures of Charlotte stone in old Harmony and Peter and Catherines, have some on order if you want some, This is pretty much the info, I have, would appreciate any other info you can help me with. I have corresponded with very few working the Hardman line, so will appreciate any help you can give me.

If you need more info on any of this, just ask questions if it isn't clear, or if you want the info on the children, I have family sheets on John, Catherine, and several others.

I have only been into genealogy since 1977 when we were transferred here (ech.) to Casper, the land of cow-boys and windy plains. So we were really surprised when in 1979 we knew that 223 years later Cynthia our youngest was married in WhiteMarsh, Montgomery Co. Pa. in 1975 at St Thomas Ch. in the vacinity of the birth of her 4th G-Grandfather John Waggoner.

The Scrapbook in the HS of Pa. has the line of Rev. John Hardman and some on Jacob, but that was something I didn't have so did not know its origion. not one ref. on any material

Thanks for the addresses of those working on Hardmans, Mr Powell I had meet last year, or was it two years ago, and turned him over to another Waggoner researcher in Florida, more expieranced, than I to deal with him.

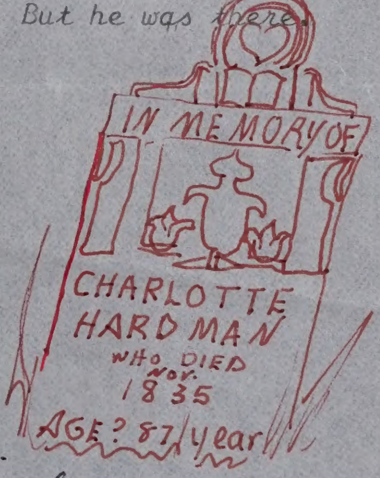
I shall write Mrs Womer, after the holidays.

I had Daniel Hardman on the 1820 C. of Harrison Co. Va. M-33. R-138. read in 1978.

Daniel Hardman, male; 2 - 10 yrs. 1-16 yrs. 0 -18 yrs. 0-26 yrs. 1 +26 yrs. 0 +45 yrs.

in 1820 6 ch? —7 female; 2 -10 yrs. 1-16 yrs. 0 -26 yrs. 1 +26 yrs. 0 + 45 Yrs.

as usual you have no name for the wife or children. But he was there.



Peters stone matched but was broken & so warn unable to read - dates - Luckly I got his info from a L.D.S. film - I'm not a Mormon - but they have a library here which is truly a God-send

Sincerely

Dear cousin,

Somehow I lost my notes of our conversation when I called you while passing through Defiance on August 12th. I have Cindy Leonard's letter with your address however.

I think you said you were descended from Daniel Hardman, Peter's brother. If so, we are cousins of a sort. I remember you mentioned Mercer County. My great-grandfather, H.K.Morris married Deniza Babcock, daughter of John and Betsy (Hardman) Babcock in Defiance on Feb 24, 1853. My grandfather, George Morris and his wife, Clara Mansfield were parents of 7 children who lived. George and Clara (Callie) are buried in Riverside with many of their children and grandchildren. Most of the boys were farmers around Arthur. There are still Morris families in that area, mostly related.

MARR

In August of 1927 mother brought me and my sister to her brother, Clarence E. (Bob) Morris's home to avoid an epidemic of polio which was running amuck in the Ohio Valley at the time. Maybe you remember the Morris Mortuary. I laid there for weeks with polio. That was long before the Salk and Sabin vaccines. While I was crippled by it, I did practise pharmacy for nearly 40 years and raised my 2 sons and [illegible] now retired. We are far from rich, but can live comfortably so I have time to find out where I came from. Someday I hope to write my family tree records so my records will not be lost. On my dad's side are Strong, Hines, Heath, Wright, Ford, Johnston, Woodward, Poulson, Smith, and Ingersoll; on mother's side are Morris, Mansfield, Perkins, Phillips, Babcock, Hardman, Hacker, Sleeth, Davis, Maxson and more I can't even remember. At last count I had 30 persons who were in Ohio prior to 1820. I think John Babcock was in Defiance with a branch of the Seventh Day Baptist Church. He was an Elder in the Mad River Church in Clarke County and again in Welton, Iowa where he and Betsy Hardman died. In Salem, W.Va., the S.D.B. settlement has been restored and is a good replica of what it was about 1800. It is run by W.Va. University as a branch. It's interesting to see how they lived.

I am sending a copy of the Peter Hardman family group sheet as I have it. Will you please enter any additions or corrections and return it to me? At the moment I intend to include these sheets in my publication which is to be a limited one, only to family and leading Genealogy sources. Please find a SASE for your convenience. If I do have the wrong sheet, let me know.

If you are ever out this way please call as I'd like to meet my cousin and her family.

Sincerely, your cousin,

Jim.

Dear Mrs. Weaver:

I saw your query in an old issue of the "Genealogical Helper." A branch of my family tree involves the Hardiman/Hardman name.

I quote from my husband's grandmother's notes: "The father and mother of Jacob Hardman was shipped from Germany to America and were bound out to pay their transportation. The mother paid hers first and then helped the father. After their debt was paid they were married and unto them were born a son named Jacob. Jacob when grown to manhood took Anna Heins as his companion and unto them were born the following known children: Eliza, Thomas, Anna Maria, Martin, George, Betsy, Alcinda (Pierce), Peter, Leverna, Arvila (Range)."

Anna Maria born in West Virginia 6/18/1812 died 2/24/1885 married Michael Wilson 2/27/1834. Michael is a brother to James who is the grandfather of President Woodrow Wilson. Michael was born 8/12/1813 and died 2/18/1872. They had 8 children.

Do any of these Hardiman/Hardman's fit into the picture of what work you have done on this name? I would like to receive more information.

A stamped addressed envelope is enclosed for your convenience in replying. Thank you for what information you can give me.

Sincerely,
Margie J. Elliott
Margie J. Elliott

PS: I was born and raised at Butler, Indiana, lived at Ft. Wayne for several years and then at Findlay, Ohio, for about 10 years so am quite familiar with the area in which you live.

DESCENDANTS OF PETER HARDMAN

Don Norman

1.PETER HARDMAN

Peter Hardman, the ancestor of the Hardman line in America, was born March 10, 1745 in Juliers, near the River Rhine in Germany and died in Harrison County VA May 13, 1827. He was the son of Nicholas and Margarett Hardman.

Peter arrived at the Port of Philadelphia October 20, 1864 aboard the ship "Richmond" from Rotterdam, Holland. Since Peter is variously referred to as "Peter" and "Peterman" and his surname is variously recorded as "Hardman", "Hartman" and "Hardtman", we cannot be sure of the original spelling of his name. Peter married Charlotte Lazier sometime before 1774. Charlotte was born about 1748 and died in Hartrison County VA in November 1835.

Peter first moved to Moorefield, in Hampshire County VA and lived at Indian Oldfields. Sometime before 1774, he made a "tomahawk entry" on a tract of land on Mike's Branch of Patterson Creek in what is now Mineral County WV, but was then part of Hardy County VA. His grant for 216 acres was made at Fairfax Courthouse in 1781. The family lived on Mike's Branch until about 1777, when they moved to the Youghigany River area in Pennsylvania. When the family left Mike's Branch, Peter leased the property to Joseph Hanks and George Terry. Hanks moved into the cabin and many believe that Nancy Hanks, the mother of Abraham Lincoln, was born in the Hardman cabin in 1783. On March 9, 1784, Joseph Hanks sold 108 acres of land to Peter Putnam before setting out for Kentucky. About 1791, Peter and his family moved to Jesse's Run, a branch of Hacker's Creek, in Harrison County VA. Peter bought 164 acres of land from Jesse Hughes, and the plat was recorded in Harrison County Deed book 3, p.359 July 11, 1791.

Peter Hardman's will is as follows: 1819 July 2nd. Harison County VA, wife Cahrlotte Lazier Hardman. "I will and bequeath to my son Jacob Hardman all that tract of land on which I now live. Laying on Jesse Hughes run containig 164 acres: also I will and bequeath to my son Jacob my other tract of land containg 101 acres adjoining the above tract, to hold to him and his heirs forever: and as to such other estate, real or personal as I shall die possessed of, I also will and bequeath to my son Jacob Hardman and his heirs forever; and it is my will and entention that should my wife survive me, that she is to have and enjoy her equal third part

Peter Hardman, the ancestor of the Hardman line in America, was born March 10, 1745

Sometime before 1774, he made a "tomahawk entry" on a tract of land on Mike's Branch of Patterson Creek, in what is now Mineral County WV, but was then part of Hardy County VA. His grant for 219 acres was made at Fairfax Courthouse in 1781. The family lived on Mike's Branch until about 1777, when they moved to the Youghigany River area in intention that should my wife survives me, that she is to have and enjoy her equal third part of lands

of all the estate bequeathed to my said son Jacob during her natural life, and to descend at her death to my said son Jacob as above bequeathed."

"I will and bequeath to each of my other sons, Peter, John, Henry and Daniel Hardman, $100.00 each to be paid by my son Jacob whithin five years from and after my decease, and to be paid in property at valuation of two men chosen by the parties."

"I will and bequeath to my daughters Elizabeth and Catherine, $50.00 each to be paid by my son Jacob within five years from and after my death in property at the valuation of two men chosen by the parties."

"In witness Wheore Of I, Yhe said Peter Hardman, have hereunto set my hand and seal this 2nd day of July, in the year of our Lord 1819.

I had absolutely nothing to go on when I started except my Grandfather's name. I feel like I've accomplished alot. I hope I have something to help you. I'm a teacher and on my summer break, my brother and I are going to go to Mt. Gilead and do some research in the libraries and antique shops. I need to prepare more before I go though. My Mom thinks this is so cool because she was little when they divorced and felt like she didn't know anything about her father.
My grandmother will turn 95 on June 19. My Mom is an only child. My parents live not far from us. She is 70 and my Dad is 75. I'm 46 and my adopted brother is 24 and in college. He lives with my husband and me. My husband and I are both teachers; my brother is studying to be one. We have two canine kids, Bubba and Bruno.
Again thanks for responding. Let me know a bit about yourself.
Take care,
Pam

[This was a mortgage on the property that was to be paid back with interest by 08 APR 1841. If not paid back, property reverted to Hardman estate.]

This deed was filed the 15th and recorded the 18th June 1838.

On Dec. 4, 1838 Lewis R Carpenter, one of the Executors of Hardman acknowledged the receipt of Seventy Dollars.

The first white man to explore the Skin Creek region of which any record has been given to history is John Hacker, the first settler in the Hacker's Creek district about the year 1772. According to that traditional account he was at the time on the trail of three buffaloes that had devastated his corn patch during the summer while absent to the South Branch to remove his family to the newly made home in the wilderness. The first day's trail brought him to the mouth of a small stream afterwards named Curtis run on Little Skin Creek. Here he located a claim which according to the custom of that day was accomplished by simply girdling some trees.

This act within itself did not constitute ownership but merely denoted priority to other claims which might be subsequently made. Hacker's second day's pursuit of the buffaloes brought him to the mouth of a stream on the head waters of the West Fork river and tradition says having discovered there a colony crams he named the stream Cram Camp Run. Here he also located a claim and the next day again hit the trail of the buffaloes which he failed to apprehend for two days yet. He killed a cow, so the account says, and returned home.

Tradition says that he named the two Skin Creek streams, Bid Muddy and Little Muddy.

While it is well known that western Virginia as a whole had long before been traversed by hunters and trappers it is not known if this particular region had even been seen until John Hacker gazed upon it.

John Hardman

John Hardman was beyond doubt the first permanent settler in the Skin Creek region. The exact date of his coming cannot be given without recourse to an examination of the Harrison county records which even then would show only the date his patent to the land was issued. The greater event however, is the date showing time of settlement. This can be safely fixed approximately at about the year 1797, coinciding with the date of his marriage. He settled near the mouth of Curtis run on Little Skin Creek and his lands embraced the farms known in after years as the Isaac Butcher tract and the George H. Corathers tract.

His residence stood near the site now occupied by the George H. Corathers residence. He built a mill on the creek south from his residence run by water power which ground corn only. One of the runners of these corn buhrs is at present used as a top step at the front entrance to the house of Thomas Meadows who lives not far from the old mill site. The workmanship on this stone is superior and a model for its kind and shows unmistakably the hand of an artist.

This mill is said to have been built several years before the Curtis mill on Stonecoal known in modern times as Gaston. But it ground corn for the surrounding neighborhood for fifty years when both mill and dam was swept away by a flood.

Rev. John Hardman as he was known in late life was a son of Peter Hardman, a pioneer settler on Jesse's run of Hacker's Creek and he married Elizabeth Waggoner, a daughter of John Waggoner, who lived also on Jesse's run. The Hardmans and Waggoners were close neighbors.

Elizabeth Waggoner, and sister Mary, and Peter, a brother, were all three taken captive by Tecumseh and two of his warriers in 1792 and carried to the Shawnee villages on the Sciota river in the northwestern part of Ohio.

Mrs. Waggoner, the mother of the three taken captive was killed and also three of the smaller children. Peter, after many years, returned to the settlement on Hacker's creek and married Mrs. Katie Hyde, a widow whose maiden name was Katie Hardman and a sister to Rev. John Hardman. Elizabeth, so say the historians was not restored to her people until after the treaty of Greenville in 1795. Some few years later she married Rev. John Hardman as already stated. As the Waggoner massacre is so thrillingly told by Withers in his Border Warfare and by McWhorter in Border Settlers of Northwestern Virginia and also by Edward C. Smith in his History of Lewis County, nothing further need be said on that score.

There is a tradition in the Hardman family, especially among the living grandchildren of Elizabeth (Waggoner) Hardman that their grandmother, through the aid and assistance of an Indian trader escaped from captivity and was brought to Fort Wheeling. Louis Bonnett, her uncle, who was at the time a soldier in the fort brought her through the wilderness and to her home.

She became the mother of thirteen children, eleven of whom reached maturity and some passed into old age. There was only one daughter and she became the wife of Jacob W. Hudson. Henry, one of the sons, settled on the head waters of Big Skin Creek; Joshua lived on Big Skin Creek and John G. moved to Braxton in 1850 where he lived and died. The other boys went West at different times shortly after reaching manhood, one to Louisville, Ky. one to Lexington, same state, one to Peoria, Ill. and the rest to other points in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

Elizabeth Waggoner Hardman died at her home near Georgetown in 1854, aged 74, and her husband died near the close of the Civil War. Both were buried at Georgetown in Mount Gilead cemetery.

Richard Johnson is believed to have been the first settler on Big Skin Creek and the date of settlement is fixed at 1797 or 1798. This perhaps is the date he received a patent to his land but if the statement of

In a shrubbery hidden cemetery few people know exists rests a simple, white headstone with the inscription: "Margaret, Wife of Peter Hardman, Died July 20, 1815, Aged 38 years, 6 months, 23 days."

The weather worn marker can be found in what generally is known as the Mitman cemetery although the cemetery actually bordered the Mitman family farm and was not owned by the family. Habitually ill-kept and bearing signs of vandalism, the cemetery is located on Highview dr. near the First Baptist church.

The Hardman marker is of particular interest because in her youth, Margaret (Hacker) Hardman survived the usual but not necessarily fatal removal of her scalp by an Indian.

MARGARET HACKER was born in Virginia in 1777 to the Rev. and Mrs. John Hacker. The Hackers first settled east of the Alleghenies, then to an area named Hacker's creek, west of the mountains.

When she was 12 years of age, Margaret went to the home of a married sister on Hacker's creek. A marauding company of Indians passed through the neighborhood, murdered the sister's family — tomahawking and scalping every one of them. Margaret hid behind a door but was soon discovered. The Indians dragged her by the hair a distance of 50 yards and then severed the scalp from the head, threw her over a fence and left her "to fester in her blood." Looking back and thinking Margaret might still be alive, one of the Indians returned and stabbed her with a knife. The knife struck a rib, however, and this wound was not serious.

As soon as some strength returned, Margaret crawled to the thick branches of a fallen tree to hide from any returning Indians. The next morning she was able to return to her sister's home where she was found and cared for. Though she returned to health, the scalp wound never completely healed and Margaret suffered the effects of it to the end of her life. She always wore a cap or bonnet to conceal the disfigurement.

This event took place within 10 rods from where the Mt. Hebron Methodist church stands in Jane Lew, Lewis county, W.Va. Jane Lew is about 18 miles south of Clarksburg, named in honor of George Rogers Clark.

IN 1798 WHEN she was 21, Margaret married Peter Hardman who was born July 23, 1776 in Hardy county, Va. Peter's father, Peter Hardman Sr., was born in Germany March 10, 1745, married in 1764 and emigrated to the shores of Virginia that same year settling in Hardy county. Peter Hardman Sr., his wife, Charlotte, and the parents of Margaret Hacker are buried at the Old Harmony Methodist church in Lewis county, W.Va., located within two miles of Jane Lew.

In 1808 Margaret and her husband left West Virginia to come to Greene county in Ohio. They traveled in a large covered wagon drawn by four horses.

The Hardmans settled on a farm on the east side of what was known as Tatman's prairie, east of the present city of Fairborn on what is now the site of the Universal Atlas Cement co. Seven years later Margaret died leaving 10 children all under 16 years of age. The first two were twin girls. She had three other girls and five boys. All 10 survived her.

Besides Margaret (Hacker) Hardman, her husband, Peter, and his second wife, Sarah (Edge) Hardman whom he married in October 1815 and who bore him seven children, others buried in the cemetery on Highview dr. include Joseph Tatman and his wife, Indiana. Joseph helped survey Fairfield in 1816.

Now these gravesites of those early pioneers overlook the Wright-Patterson AFB landing field for sleek, jet airplanes.

WILLIAM HARDMAN, owner of two hundred and sixty-seven acres of valuable farming land, situated in Pleasant Township, on the London and Urbana Road, three miles south of Catawba, was born in Clark County, Ohio, February 28, 1831, and is a son of Jonathan and Mary (Arbogast) Hardman.

Other places? say Peter H[illegible]man Sr not [illegible]ilip

→ Philip Hardman, the great-grandfather of William, was born on the River Rhine, in Germany, and came to America, expecting to sell himself to an employer, in order to repay the sum of $35, which had been advanced for his passage. He was bought in the port of New York by a resident of New Jersey, and worked five months for his purchaser. This was no unusual transaction at that time. He subsequently made his way to Virginia, and at Clarksburg, in that state, his son Peter was born.

Peter Hardman learned the trade of gunsmith. He was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Hacker and his second wife, a Mrs. Edge, a widow. From Clarksburg, Virginia, Peter Hardman and wife came to Ohio, in 1803, and settled about one mile south of Osborn, Greene County. There was a law that prevailed at that time that some improvement had to be made on land in order to hold it. and after Peter Hardman had paid the sum of $1.25 an acre to the Government, he borrowed an ax, cut down a small tree, split it into rails and stood them over a stump, this being the sum of his improvements, but sufficient to protect his property. He then returned to Virginia, where he followed his trade for two years longer and then came back and settled on his land, on which he passed the remainder of his life. He was accompanied by his first wife, who lived to the age of about fifty years. When she was a girl of twelve years she was scalped by the Indians at the time all the other members of her family were killed, and she was left supposed to be dead. She finally recovered and lived to become the mother of ten children. There were three children born to Peter Hardman's second marriage: Peter, William R. and Jane.

Jonathan Hardman, father of William was born at Clarksburg, Virginia, in 1803, and spent the remainder of his life in Ohio, dying at London, Madison County, in 1876. He married Mary Arbogast, who was born in Clark County, and was a daughter of Peter and Sarah Arbogast. They had nine children, namely: Sarah, who died in 1863; Peter, who married Lucia Lauman, of Chillicothe, was a soldier and died after being brought home from Harper's Ferry; Otho, who married Eliza Weaver, of Madison County, has had five children; William; Henderson, who died unmarried at the age of twenty-two years; Mary, who also died unmarried at the age of twenty-two years; Charlotte Ann, who died aged three weeks; Martha, deceased, who married John Sayers, now a resident of Iowa, but formerly of Logan County, Ohio, left two children; and Wesley, who resides at Cable, Champaign County, Ohio, where he operates several grain elevators. He married Minnie Walk, who died in a hospital at Columbus, in 1904. She left no children.

William Hardman was reared on the home farm and attended the country schools when he could spare the time. He assisted his brothers in clearing and cultivating the farm and later, becoming interested in growing sheep, he went into partnership with J. R. Ware, of Mechanicsburg, following this business until 1863, when he became a member of the One Hundred and Sixty-seventh Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, for service in the Civil War. He was with his company in camp at Urbana, when he received a note from his partner which asked him to turn over his gun to the messenger, a man by the name of Thomas Cartmell, as the latter was willing to take his place and was an unmarried man. Mr. Ware knew that Mr. Hardman's absence from the sheep farm would be a sad loss to their business, and as soon as Mr. Hardman recognized this fact, he made arrangements by which he could turn over to Mr. Cartmell his equipments, after which he returned home.

On October 29, 1856, Mr. Hardman was married to Margaret Ellen Bireley, who was born March 11, 1838, in Maryland, and is a daughter of Lewis and Sarah Bireley. They came to Clark County in 1839 and settled for a short time in Springfield Township, and in 1840 came to Pleasant Township, where they lived during the remainder of their lives. They had nine children, namely: Philip W., who was born February 15, 1826, died November 3, 1903; Rebecca, who was born September 16, 1827; Lewis, who was born September 28, 1831; Charlotte Catherine, who was born November 14, 1833; Elizabeth Ann, who was born December 7, 1835; Margaret Ellen, who is Mrs. Hardman; Sarah Jane, who was born May 23, 1841, died August 20, 1907, at Danville, Illinois; Eliza Henrietta, who was born May 24, 1842; and Henry Clay, who was born February 10, 1846, there having been but two deaths in this family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardman have four children, namely: Minor, Belle, Eddie and Ella, the latter being twins. Minor Hardman was reared in Pleasant Township and in 1886 he married Hattie Runyan, who is a daughter of Thomas W. and Phebe Runyan, and they have three children: Omer, born November 19, 1882; Anna, born in December, 1893, and Ralph, born December 25, 1895. Belle Hardman, who was born August 8, 1867, married Milton Stipp, who is an extensive farmer and stockman, owning two hundred and fifty acres in Champaign County. They have one daughter, Essie Catherine, who was born January 3, 1891. Eddie and Ella Hardman were born May 25, 1877. The former was married November 28, 1906, to Effie Marsh, of Madison County. They have a son, William Marsh, born May 10, 1908. The daughter was married April 7, 1898, to P. M. Wilson, who conducts a store at Brighton, Clark County, and they have three sons, William W., born October 12, 1900; Paul W., born December 31, 1902; and Orrin H., born August 12, 1905.

On October 29, 1906, Mr. and Mrs. Hardman enjoyed the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary and it was an occasion that will long be remembered by all who were permitted to participate in it. Friends and relatives were in attendance from Madison, Clark and Champaign Counties and also from Columbus, numbering four children, seven grandchildren and eighty-eight other relatives and near friends, many of whom had never before found an opportunity of becoming acquainted. With their expressions of interest, good-will and affection, they each brought an appropriate present, which serves to recall the givers to Mr. and Mrs. Hardman every day of their lives. The banquet, of which ninety-five guests partook, was probably the most elaborate one ever served in Pleasant Township. Two presents which are highly prized are admirable pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Hardman, the first having been taken fifty years before this anniversary, and the second, about this period.

Although Mr. Hardman has reached his seventy-seventh birthday, he still takes an active interest in his farm and looks carefully after his valuable Delaine sheep. In politics he is a Republican and has served three terms on that ticket as township trustee. Mr. Hardman was reared in the faith of the Methodist Episcopal Church, but his religious views at present are in accordance with those of the Universalist Church.

O. C. CLARKE, secretary and treasurer of the Springfield Abstract Company, has spent his entire life up to date in the City of Springfield, with the exception of a few years spent in Kansas and Missouri. A native of this city, he is a son of Charles E. and Mary C. (Christie) Clarke, who were born respectively in Decatur, Ga., and Springfield, Ohio. Charles E. Clarke, the father, came to Springfield when a child of six or seven years, and here grew to manhood. He began business life in Dayton, Ohio, where he engaged in book publishing. Thence he went subsequently to Minnesota, where he was interested in real estate operations for a short time. At the end of that period, or about the commencement of the Civil War, he returned to Springfield. He next went to Missouri, where in 1862 he became a member of the State Militia, entering with the rank of captain and being later promoted to that of major. He resigned his commission in December, 1864, and again returned to Springfield. Here he remained but a short time, when he again took up his residence in Missouri, entering into the lumber business at Independence, of which place he was a resident for about five years. He then engaged in the real estate business at Fort Scott, Kansas, and was thus occupied for three years. While there his health failed and he once more returned to Springfield, Ohio, where he died March 12, 1876.

His wife, Mary, was a daughter of James S. and Laura (Beardsley) Christie, natives of New Hampshire and New York, respectively, who were married at Springfield, Ohio, in 1824, where they resided continuously until their decease, in 1884 and 1888, respectively. Mr. Christie, who was by trade a carpenter, engaged here in contracting and building, and also conducted a saw and planing-mill for a number of years. He and his wife were the parents of five children, who attained maturity, namely: Sarah, Mary, Edward, Harlan and James. All are now deceased, with the exception of Mary and Harlan. The father was a Republican politically, and a member of the Presby-

HISTORY OF GREENE COUNTY, OHIO BY R.S. DILS
BATH TOWNSHIP

PETER E. HARDMAN, FARMER, WAS BORN ON THE FARM WHERE HE NOW LIVES, APRIL 1, 1824. HE IS A SON OF PETER AND SARAH EDGE HARDMAN, NATIVES OF VIRGINIA. THE EARLY HISTORY OF THE PARENTS OF OUR SUBJECT, DEMANDS A PASSING NOTICE AT OUR HANDS. HIS FATHER WAS OF GERMAN DESCENT, BORN IN HARDY COUNTY, VIRGINIA, BUT WAS REARED TO MANHOOD IN HARRISON COUNTY, WHERE HE MARRIED MARGARET HACKER, IN WHOSE EARLY HISTORY A SCENE OF HORROR AND BLOODSHED, ONLY PARALLELED BY THOSE OF THE MINNESOTA MASSACRE OF 1862 AND 1863, WAS ENACTED. AS RELATED BY THEM IN AFTER YEARS, IT WAS BRIEFLY AS FOLLOWS: SHE WAS ELEVEN YEARS OLD, AND WAS AT THE HOUSE OF A MARRIED SISTER, ON HACKER'S CREEK, NEAR CLARKSBURG, VIRGINIA, WHEN A COMPANY OF MARAUDING INDIANS PASSED THROUGH THE COUNTRY AND MURDERED THE ENTIRE FAMILY, TOMAHAWKING AND SCALPING EVERY ONE OF THEM. MARGARET RIED TO CONCEAL HERSELF BEHIND A DOOR, WHILE THE WORK OF DEATH WAS GOING ON, BUT SHE WAS SOON DISCOVERED, AND ONE OF THE SAVAGES GAVE HER A BLOW ON THE SIDE OF THE HEAD, WHICH FELLED HER TO THE FLOOR AS IF DEAD. THEY THEN PROCEEDED TO TAKE THE SCALPS FROM THE HEADS OF THE ENTIRE FAMILY. THEY DRAGGED LITTLE MARGARET BY THE HAIR A DISTANCE OF SOME FIVE HUNDRED YARDS, SEVERED HER SCALP AND THREW HER OVER A FENCE, AND LEFT HER TO WELTER IN HER BLOOD, BUT LOOKING BACK AND THINKING THAT POSSIBLY LIFE WAS NOT EXTINCT, ONE OF THEM RETURNED AND STABBED HER WITH HIS KNIFE. THE POINT, HOWEVER, STRUCK A RIB, AND IT WOULD SEEM THAT ONLY BY THE DIRECT INTERVENTION OF FATE WAS HER LIFE SPARED, AND SHE THE PROGENITOR OF A LARGE FAMILY. SHE WAS LEFT WEAK FROM THE LOSS OF BLOOD, AND WAS NOT ABLE FOR SOME TIME TO CHANGE HER POSITION, BUT FINALLY WAS SO FAR RESTORED, AS TO BE ABLE TO CRAWL IN TO THE THICK BRANCHES OF A FALLEN TREE, WHERE SHE REMAINED THROUGH THE FOLLOWING NIGHT, IN FEAR OF RETURN OF THE DREADED ENEMY, AFTER WHICH SHE MANAGED TO GET BACK TO THE SCENE OF HORROR, AT THE NOW DESOLATE HOUSE OF HER SISTER, WHERE SHE WAS FOUND AND CARED FOR. SHE GREW TO WOMANHOOD, AND AS WE HAVE SAID, WAS MARRIED TO PETER HARDMAN SOMETIME IN 1798, AND CAME TO THIS STATE IN 1808, AND DIED JULY 20, 1815, IN HER THIRTY-NINTH YEAR. THE REMOTE CAUSE OF HER DEATH WAS THE BLOW FROM THE INDIAN TOMAHAWK. SHE, HOWEVER, BORE HER HUSBAND TEN CHILDREN, ALL OF WHOM SURVIVE HER. MR. HARDMAN'S BOYHOOD, WAS SPENT AMONG THE MOUNTAINS OF HIS NATIVE STATE. HE HAD EARLY BEEN APPRENTICED TO A BLACKSMITH AND HIS ACQUAINTANCE WITH WORKING IRON AND STEEL, BECAME VERY USEFUL TO HIM IN HIS NEW HOME IN THE WEST. HE BECAME A SUBJECT OF DIVINE GRACE AS EARLY AS 1804, WITH SO MUCH ZEAL THAT IN THE COURSE OF ANOTHER YEAR, HE WAS LICENSED AS A METHODIST PREACHER. HE CAME HERE IN 1808, AND MADE A HOME ON THE EAST SIDE OF WHAT IS KNOWN AS TATMAN'S PRAIRIE. AFTER DEFRAYING THE EXPENSES OF THE TRIP, WHICH WAS BY ROAD WAGON, WITH FOUR HORSES, HE HAD JUST $1.25 LEFT.

HERE HE LIVED AND LABORED, NOR DID HE NEGLECT THE GIFTS OR GRACES OF PREACHER AND EXHORTER, BUT WHENEVER IN PRIVATE DWELLING OR SCHOOL HOUSES, HE COULD GET AN AUDIENCE ON THE SABBATH OR WEEK-DAY EVENINGS, THERE HE DELIGHTED IN PREACHING THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST. IN OCTOBER 1815, HE MARRIED FOR HIS SECOND WIFE, MRS. SARAH EDGE, A WIDOW WITH TWO CHILDREN. SHE BORE HIM SEVEN CHILDREN, MAKING SEVENTEEN IN ALL, BESIDES THE TWO OF HIS WIFE'S, WHICH WERE ADOPTED INTO THE SAME FAMILY. HE REMAINED ON THE ORIGINAL FARM, TILL 1852, WHEN HE REMOVED TO OSBORN, WHERE HE SPENT THE REMAINDER OF HIS LIFE, DYING THE 30TH DAY OF JULY, 1857. HIS POSTERITY CONSISTED OF SEVENTEEN CHILDREN, EIGHTY-TWO GRANDCHILDREN, FIFTY-TWO GREAT GRANDCHILDREN, AND FOUR GREAT, GREAT, GRAND CHILDREN, IN ALL, ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIVE SOULS. PETER E., THE SUBJECT OF THIS SKETCH, IS A SON OF THE SECOND WIFE. HE LIVED WITH HIS FATHER UNTIL HE WAS TWENTY-ONE, AND THEN BEGAN CROPPING ON THE SHARES, HAVING EVERY THING FURNISHED AND HE GETTING ONE-THIRD. AFTER FOUR YEARS, HE AND HIS BROTHER W.R. RENTED THE FARM UP TO THE TIME OF THE DEATH OF THEIR FATHER, WHEN THE PROPERTY WAS LEFT TO THEM BY WILL. THEY CONTINUED FARMING TOGETHER UP TO 1875 OR 1876, SINCE WHICH TIME, PETER E. HAS HAD THE ENTIRE CHARGE OF THE FARM OF ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FOUR ACRES, AND HAS, ALSO, A TWO THIRDS INTEREST IN ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX ACRES NEAR YELLOW SPRINGS, BESIDES A HOUSE AND OTHER PROPERTY INOSBORN. HE HAS ACQUIRED HIS COMPETENCE BY HARD WORK AND LOANING MONEY, WHICH HE BEGAN BY LOANING NINE DOLLARS. HE FOLLOWED THE PLAN CAREFULLY, ALWAYS LIVING WITHIN HIS MEANS, AND MADE IT A RULE TO HAVE A LITTLE SURPLUS. FOR SOME YEARS PAST, HE HAS QUIT HEAVY OR REGULAR LABOR IN THE FIELDS. IN 1848, HE MARRIED MARIA CLAYTON WHO HAS BORNE HIM SEVEN CHILDREN, FOUR OF WHOM, SARAH C., OWEN P., JAMES R., AND CASSIUS M. ARE LIVING. GEORGE W., ELLEN M., AND MERTIE, DECEASED-GEORGE W., IN 1852, WHEN THREE YEARS OF AGE, OF SCARLET FEVER; ELLEN, AN ESTIMABLE YOUNG LADY OF NINETEEN, OF SPINAL COMPLAINT, IN 1873; AND MERTIE, THE YOUNGEST, BY TEN OR ELEVEN YEARS, OF MEMBRANOUS CROUP, IN 1872. DURING THE LAST TWELVE OR FIFTEEN YEARS, MR. HARDMAN HAS BEEN DEALING QUITE EXTENSIVELY IN CATTLE BUYING, GRAZING, AND RAISING.

members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with which they have been connected for many years.

John Haddox is a native of Harrison County, West Virginia; born December 29, 1791: son of Nimrod and Elizabeth (Saylor) Haddox, both natives of Virginia. They immigrated to this state in 1801 or 1802, stopping one year near Chillicothe, on Deer Creek. Not being satisfied there, they moved westward, and located in this county, on a farm, where he remained till the time of his death, acting in the capacity of justice of the peace during three years of the time, and died, in 1816, from injuries received by falling from a load of hay, caused by the sudden starting of the team. His wife died the same year, leaving three children, John, Nimrod, and Mary. John Haddox was reared on the farm, receiving but little education, and that in the common schools of the new country—log buildings, with greased paper for windows. After having attained his majority, he lived on a rented farm, and kept the family till in his twenty-fourth year, at which time he married Sallie Cox, and began life in earnest. After much hard work and shrewd management, he entered the southeast quarter of section 29, town 3, range 8, which, by the division of the county, now lies in Clarke, adjoining the county line. There he made a permanent home, and reared his family of seven children, of whom Malinda, William, John R., Sarah, George, and Maria are living, and Nimrod deceased. He continued living on the farm till some twenty years ago, when he rented his farms, and went to Jasper County, Indiana, where he bought nine hundred acres of land, a mill, and still-house, and put his boys on the same, remaining there about eight years. With the exception of this time, he has lived in this immediate vicinity since his boyhood; and although starting in life poor, he has, by good management, strict economy, and hard labor, accumulated a large property, owning several farms in this section of the country after having given his children a good start in life. Mr. Haddox is a man of strong constitution and temperate habits, and although now nearly fourscore years and ten, he is able to attend to his business affairs and see after his farms, visiting them at least once a week. In politics he is a staunch Republican, and says, with pride, that he never voted a Democratic ticket. He has been instrumental in bringing about many of the improvements with which the county is now blessed.

Peter E. Hardman, farmer, was born on the farm where he now lives, April 1, 1824. He is a son of Peter and Sarah Edge Hardman, natives of Virginia. The early history of the parents of our subject, demands a passing notice at our hands. His father was of German descent, born in Hardy County, Virginia, but was reared to manhood in Harrison County, where he married Margaret Hacker, in whose early history a scene of horror and bloodshed, only paralleled by those of the Minnesota massacre of 1862 and 1863, was enacted. As related by them in after years, it was briefly as follows: She was eleven years old, and was at the house of a married sister, on Hacker's Creek, near Clarksburg, Virginia, when a company of marauding Indians passed through the country and murdered the entire family, tomahawking and scalping every one of them. Margaret tried to conceal herself behind a door, while the work of death was going on, but she was soon discovered, and one of the savages gave her a blow on the side of the head, which felled her to the floor as if dead. They then proceeded to take the scalps from the heads of the entire family. They dragged little Margaret by the hair a distance of some five hundred yards, severed her scalp and threw her over a fence, and left her to welter in her blood, but looking back and thinking that possibly life was not extinct, one of them returned and stabbed her with his knife. The point, however, struck a rib, and it would seem that only by the direct intervention of fate was her life spared, and she the progenitor of a large family. She was left weak from the loss of blood, and was not able for some time to change her position, but finally was so far restored, as to be able to crawl in to the thick branches of a fallen tree, where she remained through the following night, in fear of the return of the dreaded enemy, after which she managed to get back to the scene of horror, at the now desolate house of her sister, where she was found and cared for. She grew to womanhood, and as we have said, was married to Peter Hardman sometime in 1798, and came to this state in 1808, and died July 20, 1815, in her thirty-ninth year. The remote cause of her death was the blow from the Indian tomahawk. She, however, bore her husband ten children, all of whom survive her. Mr. Hardman's boyhood, was spent among the mountains of his native state. He had early been apprenticed to a blacksmith, and his acquaintance with working iron and steel, became very useful to him in his new home in the west. He became a subject of divine grace as early as 1804, with so much zeal that in the course of another year he was licensed as a local Methodist preacher. He came here in 1808, and made a home on the east side of what is known as Tatman's Prairie. After defraying the expenses of the trip, which was by road wagon, with four horses, he had just $1.25 left. Here he lived and labored, nor did he neglect the gifts or graces of preacher and exhorter, but whenever in private dwelling or in school houses, he could get an audience on the Sabbath or week-day evenings, there he delighted in preaching the Gospel of Christ. In October, 1815, he married for his second wife, Mrs. Sarah Edge, a widow with two children. She bore him seven children, making seventeen in all, besides the two of his wife's, which were adopted into the same family. He remained on the original farm, till 1852, when he removed to Osborn, where he spent the remainder of his life, dying the 30th day of July, 1857. His posterity consisted of seventeen children, eighty-two grandchildren, fifty-two great grandchildren, and four great, great, grand children, in all, one hundred and fifty-five souls. Peter E., the subject of this sketch, is a son of the second wife. He lived with his father until he was twenty-one, and then began cropping on the shares, having every thing furnished and he getting the one-third. After four years, he and his brother W. R., rented the farm up to the time of the death of their father, when the property was left them by will. They continued farming together up to 1875 or 1876, since which time, Peter E. has had the entire charge of the farm of one hundred and thirty-four acres, and has, also, a two-thirds interest in one hundred and thirty-six acres near Yellow Springs, besides a house and other property in Osborn. He has acquired his competence by hard work and loaning money, which he began by loaning nine dollars. He followed the plan carefully, always living within his means, and made it a rule to have a little surplus. For some years past, he has quit heavy or regular labor in the fields. In 1848, he married Maria Clayton, who has borne him seven children, four of whom, Sarah C., Owen P., James R. and Cassius M., are living. George W., Ellen M., and Mertie, deceased—George W., in 1852, when three years of age, of scarlet fever; Ellen, an estimable young lady of nineteen, of spinal complaint, in 1873; and Mertie, the youngest, by ten or eleven years, of membranous croup, in 1872. During the last twelve or fifteen years, Mr. Hardman has been dealing quite extensively in cattle, buying, grazing and raising.

Reuben C. Hoover, physician, Osborn, was born in Shippensburg, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, June 1, 1821, and is a son of Jacob and Mary (Smith) Hoover. His father was a wagon-maker by trade, and followed that business where our subject was born. Dr. Hoover was educated at Shippensburg, and read medicine in Adams County, under Dr. Joseph M. Smith, his uncle. He attended lectures at the Jefferson Medical College, at Philadelphia, and afterward at the Pennsylvania Medical College, at the same place, where he graduated. He practiced five years, between the two courses, at Centerville, Cumberland County, and five years at the same place after he graduated. In 1854 he came to this state, stopping one year at Springfield, after which he came to Bath Township, where he has remained ever since, practicing in Osborn and Fairfield. In 1843 he married Catharine Smith, who bore him five children: Calvin, Margaret (Mrs. Cox), Emma, Laura, and Reuben C., jr. Of these, two only are living: Reuben C., M. D., who graduated in 1876, at the Cleveland Medical College; and Mrs. Cox. Calvin was a physician, also, dying at the age of thirty-two. Dr. Hoover has now an extensive practice, and enjoys the confidence of many friends.

Simon S. Huffer, farmer, Osborn, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, May 23, 1813, and is a son of Abraham and Elizabeth (Stoner) Huffer, both natives of the same county. They moved, with their family, to this state, in 1815, and located at what has since been known as Huffersville, within a short distance of where Simon S. now lives. Abraham was a weaver and distiller, and brought a still with him from Pennsylvania, which he used in a modest way the remainder of his life. They had six sons and one daughter: John, Samuel, Abraham, Joseph, Simon S., Annie Eliza, and Daniel S. Four of them are still living—Annie E. in Illinois, the remainder in this state. He owned some seven hundred acres of land where he lived. At an early date he built Huffer's Mill, and did a flourishing business for the time, making as many as fifty and sixty barrels of flour per day. In many ways he assisted much in the growth and prosperity of the country. He died August 29, 1843, after having attained the age of sixty-six years. His wife survived him until the 9th of August, 1862, dying in her eighty-third year. Simon S. Huffer, as has been seen, came to this state with his parents when only two years of age, and has lived where he now resides ever since. In his early life, he followed farming, in connection with teaming, but since his marriage

IN 1848, HE MARRIED MARIA CLAYTON WHO HAS BORNE HIM SEVEN CHILDREN, FOUR OF WHOM, SARAH C., OWEN P., JAMES R., AND CASSIUS M. ARE LIVING. GEORGE W., ELLEN M., AND MERTIE, DECEASED-GEORGE W., IN 1852, WHEN THREE YEARS OF AGE, OF SCARLET FEVER; ELLEN, AN ESTIMABLE YOUNG LADY OF NINETEEN, OF SPINAL COMPLAINT, IN 1873; AND MERTIE, THE YOUNGEST, BY TEN OR ELEVEN YEARS, OF MEMBRANOUS CROUP, IN 1872. DURING THE LAST TWELVE OR FIFTEEN YEARS, MR. HARDMAN HAS BEEN DEALING QUITE EXTENSIVELY IN CATTLE BUYING, GRAZING, AND RAISING.

George purchased twenty acres, they keeping the eighty acres about twenty-three years. In February, 1877, he sold his interest in that county, and located in the northern part of Canaan Tp., where he now has 140 acres, which he runs in true farmer style. Oct. 27, 1859, during his 26th year, he was married to Eliza Diegle, born Nov. 6, 1837, in Mifflin Tp., Richland Co., daughter of George and Catharine (Duwe) Diegle, and natives of Germany; they have seven children—William F., born Aug. 23, 1860; John G., Jan. 8, 1862; Isaac N., Sept. 15, 1863; Jacob W., July 3, 1866; David A., Oct. 26, 1869; Sarah E., Aug. 15, 1873; Mary E., April 7, 1879. His father was a house-carpenter, and raised his boys to the same vocation, which Jefferson continued to follow, until he was 28 years of age, when he was married to Sarah Thew, who was born in Claridon Tp., Marion Co., and is a daughter of Wm. P. Thew, who is of English parentage. Subsequent to his marriage he located for a time in Marion Co., renting land of his father-in-law, continuing there until 1873, when he came to Canaan, and purchased 80 acres, now owned by Martin Brown. In the spring of 1877 he moved to his present place of abode having seventy-five acres. They have two children, Fred. E. born in Apr. 1872; Raymond, born March 22, 1879. He is a member of the M. E. Thew, born April 18, 1842, in Marion Co., daughter of William P. Thew, who was one of its early settlers and a soldier in the war of 1812. Her mother's maiden name was Susan Davis, whose family was also identified with the early settlement of the county. Since Washington's marriage he has been engaged in farming pursuits, having laid by the square and compass and taken up the plow instead, and seems quite at home as an agriculturist; he has an excellent farm of 120 acres, which he is farming quite successfully. They have three sons born them—Hollis, born April 2, 1867; Harry C., born May 9, 1869; William H., born June 27, 1871. Mr. Harris has been for several years identified with the Church interests, and though not an active member, is strongly in sympathy with its teachings, and is endeavoring to practice the principles taught in Holy Writ, as well as those inculcated in the organizations of I. O. O. F. Cardington Lodge, No. 196, and the Royal Arcanum, of which order he is a member. Joel Harris was born Oct. 11, 1812, and was married to Sarah Merritt in 1835, in the house now occupied by Washington.

Here his father built his cabin, which is yet standing in the yard, a relic of those times; he purchased his land from a second party, who had purchased the same from the Government; he paid $110 for the 80 acres. He began with a small stock of goods, and their business has increased to such an extent that it has necessitated an enlargement of their storage capacity and their trade has so increased that their stock is triple the first invoice. Their stock consists of dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, hats, caps, glass and hardware, notions, etc., and at bottom prices. Their kind and obliging manner, coupled with straightforward dealing, has justly merited the confidence of the community.

He afterwards married Nancy Porter. The Noble family are from Maryland. When William arrived to maturity, his sole possessions were $35.00. He began working out by the day, and turning his attention to anything at which he could make an honest dollar; he continued thus to labor and save, until now, when we find him in possession of an excellent farm of 137 acres, purchased in 1873, which is beautifully located. At the age of 25 he was married to Susan J. Ewers, who was born Aug. 11, 1828, a daughter of Amon and Nancy Ewers. On a farm, where he remained till the time of his death, acting in the capacity of justice of the peace during three years of the time, and died, in 1816, from injuries received by falling from a load of hay, caused by the sudden starting of the team. His wife died the same year, leaving three children, John, Nimrod, and Mary. John Haddox was reared on the farm, receiving but little education, and that in the common schools of the new countrylog buildings, with greased paper for windows. After having attained his majority, he lived on a rented farm, and kept the family till in his twenty-fourth year, at which time he married Sallie Cox, and began life in earnest. After much hard work and shrewd management, he entered the southeast quarter of section 29, town 3, range 8, which, by the division of the county, now lies in Clarke, adjoining the county line. There he made a permanent home, and reared his family of seven children, of whole Malinda., William, John R., Sarah, George, and Maria are living, and Nimrod deceased. He continued living. on the farm till some twenty years ago, when he rented his farms, and went to Jasper County, Indiana, where he bought nine hundred acres of land, a mill, and still-house, and put his boys on the same, remaining there about eight years. With the exception of this time, he has lived in this immediate vicinity since his boyhood; and although starting in life poor, he has, by good management, strict economy, and hard labor, accumulated a large property, owning several farms in this section of the country after having given his children a good start in life. Mr. Haddox is a man of strong constitution and temperate habits, and although now nearly fourscore years and ten, he is able to attend to his business affairs and see after his farms, visiting them at least once a week. , In politics he is a staunch Republican, and says, with pride, that he ever voted a Democratic ticket. He has been instrumental in bringing about many of the improvements with which the county is now blessed.

Peter E. Hardman, farmer, was born on the farm where he now lives, April 1, 1824. He is a son of Peter and Sarah Edge Hardman, natives of Virginia. The early history of the parents of our subject, demands a passing notice at our hands. His father was of German descent, born in Hardy County, Virginia, but was reared to manhood in Harrison County, where he married Margaret Hacker, in whose early history a scene of horror and bloodshed, only paralleled by those of the Minnesota massacre of 1862 and 1863, was enacted. As related by them in after years, it was briefly as follows: She was eleven years old, and was at the house of a married sister, oil Hacker's Creek, near Clarksburg, Virginia, when a company of marauding Indians passed through the country and murdered the entire family, tomahawking and scalping every one of them. Margaret tried to conceal herself behind a door, while the work of death was going on, but she was soon discovered, and one of the savages gave her a blow on the side of the head, which felled her to the floor as if dead. They then proceeded to take the scalps from the heads of the entire family. They dragged little Margaret by the hair. a distance of some five hundred yards, severed her scalp and threw her over a fence, and left her to welter in her .blood, but looking back and thinking that possibly life was not extinct, one of them returned and stabbed her with his knife. The point, however, struck a rib, and it would seem that only by the direct intervention of fate was her life spared, and she the progenitor of a large family. She was left weak from the loss of blood, and was not able for some time to change her position, but finally was so far restored, as to be able to crawl in to the thick branches of a fallen tree, where she remained through the following night, in fear of the return of the dreaded enemy, after which she managed to get back to the scene of horror, at the now desolate house of her sister, where she was found and cared for. She grew to womanhood, and as we have said, was married to Peter Hardman sometime in 1798, and came to this state in 1808, and died July 20, 1815, in her thirty-ninth year. The remote cause of her death was the blow from the Indian tomahawk. She, however, bore her husband ten children, all of whom survive her. Mr. Hardman's boyhood, was spent among the mountains of his native state. He had early been apprenticed to a blacksmith, and his acquaintance with working iron and steel, became very useful to him in his new home in the west. He became a subject of divine grace as early as 1804, with so much zeal that in the course of another year he was

On a farm, where he remained till the time of his death, acting in the capacity of justice of the peace during three years of the time, and died, in 1816, from injuries received by falling from a load of hay, caused by the sudden starting of the team. His wife died the same year, leaving three children, John, Samuel, and Mary. John Haddox was reared on the farm, receiving but little education, and that at the common schools of the new country log buildings, with greased paper for windows. After having attained his majority, he lived on a rented farm, and kept the family till in his twenty-fourth year, at which time he married Sallie Cox, and began life in earnest. After much hard work and shrewd management, he entered the southeast quarter of section 29, town 3, range 8, which, by the division of the county, now lies in Clarke, adjoining the county line. licensed as a local Methodist preacher. He came here in 1808, and made a home on the east side of what is known as Tatman's Prairie. After defraying the expenses of the trip, which was by road wagon, with four horses, he had just $1.25 left. Here he lived and labored, nor did he neglect the gifts or graces of preacher and exhorter, but whenever in private dwelling or in school houses, he could get an audience on the Sabbath or week-clay evenings, there he delighted in preaching the Gospel of Christ. In October, 1815, he married for his second wife, Mrs. Sarah Edge, a widow with two children. She bore him seven children, snaking seventeen in all, besides the two of his wife's, which were adopted into the same fancily. e remained on the original farm, till 1852, when he removed to Osborn, where he spent the remainder of his life, dying the 30th day of July, 1857. His posterity consisted of seventeen children, eighty-two grandchildren, fifty-two great grandchildren, and four great, great, grand children, in all, one hundred and fifty-five souls. Peter E., the subject of this sketch, is a son of the second wife. He lived with his father until he was twenty-one, and then began cropping on the shares, having every thing furnished and he getting the one-third. After four years, he and his brother. W. R., rented the farm up to the time of the death of their father, when the property was left them by will. They continued farming together up to 1875 or 1876, since which time, Peter E. has had the entire charge of the farm of one hunched and thirty-four acres, and has, also, a two-thirds interest in one hundred and thirty-six acres near Yellow Springs, besides a house and other property in Osborn. He has acquired his competence by hard work and loaning money, which he began by loaning nine dollars. He followed the plan carefully, always living within his means, and made it a rule to have a little surplus. For some years past, he has quit heavy or regular labor in the fields. In 1848, he married Maria Clayton, who has borne hint seven children, four of whom, Sarah C., Owen P., James R. and Cassius M., are living. George W., Ellen M., and Mertie, deceased-George W., in 1852, when three years of age, of scarlet fever; Ellen, an estimable young lady of nineteen, of spinal complaint, in 1873; and Mertie, the youngest, by ten or eleven years, of membranous croup, in 1872. #1. Nicholas and Margaret Hardman lived in Juliana, Germany, near the River Rhine.

#2 Peter Hardman, Sr. son of Nicholas and Margaret was born March 10, 1745 in Juliana Germany. He was married to Charlotte Lezer in Germany and at the age of 19, he and his wife came from Germany to America and landed on the shores of Virginia in October 1764. HE was given a grant of land from Lord Halifax consisting of 216 acres in what is now Hardy County in West Virginia. The grant of land was in two counties and was on Mike's Run, a small tributary of the South Branch of the Potomac. He settled first in Hardy County east of the Alleghanies, then crossed to Hacker's Creek, now in Lewis County, West Virginia.

The records at Richmond, Virginia and at Romney, West Va. indicate that Peter Hardma sold 108 acres of his grant to Joseph Hanks who built a log house on it. Here Nancy Hanks was born in 1784, therefore Nancy Hanks, the mother of Abraham Lincoln was born on the 108 acr her father bought from Peter Hardman, Sr. West Virginia is restoring the house and will appropriately mark the spot. Joseph Hanks moved his family westward to Kentucky soon after Nancy's ~~death~~. birth.

Peter Hardman. Sr. died May 15, 1827. He is buried at Old Harmony Methodist Church at Harmony, West Va. within 2 miles of Jane Lew, West Va. His cabin was within 2½ miles of Jane Lew, W. Va. near Clarksburg, W. Va. named in honor of George Rogers Clark.

#3 Peter Hardman, Jr. son of Peter Sr. and Charlotte was born in Hardy County, Va. July 23, 1776. He was raised to manhood in Harrison County among the mountains which ran thru state of Virginia, dividing the old settled portion of the ancient state from what is known as West Virginia.

He was married Dec. 5, 1798 to Margaret Hacker, born in Virginia in 1777. When she was a girl of 11 years, she was at the home of a married sister on Hacker's Creek, near Clarksburg, Va. when a marauding company of Indians passed thru the neighborhood and murdered the entire family, tomahawking and scalping every one of them. Margaret managed toconceal herself behind a door while the work of death was going on , but she was soon discovered when one of the savages aimed a blow at herwhich took effect on one side of her head felling her to the floor as if dead. Thinking their work of destruction complete ey proceeded to take the scalps of the whole group. They dragged little Margaret by the hair of her head a distance of 50 yards and threw her over the fence, then severed the scalp from her head and left her to fester in her blood, but looking back and thinking it barely possible that life was not yet extinct, one of the Indians retutned and stabbed her with his knife. Providence directed, however, that the point of the knife should strike a rib and her life should be mercifully spared. She was left weak from the loss of blood and was unable to change her position for some time, but finallt was so far restored as to be able to crawl in to the thick branches of a fallen tree where she concealed herself in case of the return of the enemy. She remained there thruout the long hours which she managed to get back to the scene of the crime and was found and properly cared for. She grew into womanhood and was married to Peter Hardman, Jr. She always wore a cap or bonnet to conceal her disfigurement. This event took place within 10 rods from where the Mt. Hebron Methodist Church stands in Jane Lew, Lewis County, W. Va. about 18 miles south of Clarksburg, named in honor of George Rogers Clark.

She died July 20, 1815, leaving a family of 10 children, all of them under 16 years of age. She was 38 years, 6 months, 23 days. She is buried in the Old Mitman Cemetery, near~~ what is now~~ Fairborn, Ohio. There is a monument there marking the spot.

Peter Hardman, Jr. had early beeen apprenticed to a black smith and the acquaintan which he required of methods of working with iron and steel was of service to him in the new settlement on the borders, when he set himself to the intricate business of gunsmithing which he made a specialty of so far as firearms was concerned.

He became a subject of divine grace as early as 1804, while living in Harrison, County, Va. and entered the church with so much zeal and ardor that in the course of another year was licensed to carry the gospel of peace and salvation into the settlements around im where there would have otherwise have been no outward means of grace.

He came into the valley of Mad River, Ohio in 1808 and made a home on the east side of what was known as Tatman's Prairie (the site of Atlas Cement Plant) near Fairfield, now called Fairborn. After defraying the expenses of the journey, which was by a large wagon and four horses, he had just one dollar and a quarter left in money to meet the current expen of his family. He made himself a small deer park where he had as many as half dozen deer. is wife Margaret died July 20, 1815, leaving a family of 10 children

Bob Rex

Jazz musician does not play for financial or technical proficiency

By ANGELA ASSAF
cnlife@crescent-news.com

TOLEDO — Defiance hometown son, Bob Rex, has been living his dream as a drummer in Toledo's jazz music scene where he has been entertaining audiences for 40 years, most notably appearing at the world famous Rusty's Jazz Cafe.

In recent years he has been playing out at the Village Idiot in Maumee.

"I don't play for financial or technical proficiency," says Rex, 57. "I appreciate the sincerity when the chemistry is right and makes you really want to commit to it."

He says of being a jazz musician, "We are very interchangeable, capable of playing with complete social strangers in an atmosphere of total newness and take our wares and blend with two or more different people."

After four decades, Rex will return to Defiance to perform with his jazz trio on Oct. 6 as part of the Sam Hornish Jr. Bands, Bands, Bands! series presented by Defiance Community Cultural Council.

"It is a real honor to have the opportunity to come home and play in my hometown," remarks Rex. "I have missed every class reunion because I was always working. I still have many close ties to Defiance people."

Defiance native Bob Rex of the Bob Rex Trio has been entertaining audiences in the Toledo area and beyond for four decades.

His parents, Robert G. and the late Betty Rex, were school teachers.

"My mom liked music, but there was not a lot of that musical culture in this area. Most of my exposure came from teachers and records." He was one of former Defiance High School band director, Vince Polce's "star kids" in Polce's early legacy years. From about the age of 14 through college, he was a private student of Milton King.

Rex did not study percussion at Bowling Green State University. At that time, his sax teacher was not allowed to teach jazz as the emphasis was on music education or classical performance studies, neither of which interested him. However, the father of his professor was well connected with the wider jazz culture and would bring in players from all over.

"I had a great peer group of exceptionally talented guys that were very influential. Many of them are now professional players on Broadway."

After finishing his liberal arts degree, he moved to Ann Arbor where he sold records. About that same time, the live music scene was starting to wane there. He was fortunate enough to land a gig playing at the world famous Rusty's, and later resettled in Toledo.

"I was blessed to play with so many quality players," he says of being part of the house at Rusty's. "I learned to play with and held down with some of the best players from Detroit. There were not enough good clubs, so that expanded the jazz community and attracted players from other cities as well. They would go to Rusty's after playing somewhere else."

At that time he was playing in a trio a couple nights a week. He also became a "jazz nanny" helping to raise a fellow band mate's child. Other members of his local musical family included Claude Black and Clifford Murphy. "They were like uncles — very influential," and would come over to Rusty's after playing at Murphy's," another one of the city's hot spots for jazz.

When Rusty's closed in 2003, it "created a hole" in that artistic part of the community. "It's like when a factory closes and all of the workers who shared their craft, go adrift," he says. Murphy's closed its doors two months ago.

"A lot has changed with the economy. With the new technology, people do not go downtown."

Rex recalls, the "old school way" of being a jazz musician was not to have a day job. "I had to pay the rent." For the past 15 years, he has been working in a retail tabacco shop. "Luckily I still have the physical strength to play at night."

The past couple of years have been especially tough, he admits.

"Sometimes I think what if I quit my day job and played on the street corner and just put it all out there? There are a lot of great musicians today who are not working in the industry because they can't find a job."

He says, jazz, as American classical music, "wanes in its amount of presence in the market place, but is always alive in a real passionate way. When you look at the amount of music out there, jazz is the one thing that never really dies. It's like barbecue ribs."

American classical music is Western European in origin. Jazz, is truly an original American "fusion."

"It has its roots in African American spiritual hymns. But it was born in Dixie Land and is the root of rock 'n' roll. So many people have woven new patterns into it."

He finds it ironic that since its inception, jazz has had to "fight for its existence" in its very birthplace, whereas it has been embraced in Europe and elsewhere around the world for decades. Which is why he says, many jazz musicians left the states during the racially challenged era. "They could live a better life. A black master of jazz would be treated like a king."

For years Rex had his eye on the Big Apple, but says that he is a "hometown boy" at heart. "I don't think that I would have had the opportunity to play with the quality of players in New York that I have here."

Being close to home, his father would come listen to him play in Toledo. "I think he appreciated that after 40 years, I never gave up what I'm doing. At 86, he respects what I have tried to do." Today he lives in Bryan.

"I'm sure there were times when mom regretted what I chose to do professionally because it wasn't the kind of life where you have a house and a family."

His brother, Tom, four years younger, lives in Defiance. He is recently retired from teaching/coaching at Defiance High

NICHOLAS HARTMAN OF GERMANY
REPRESENTED IN AMERICA BY PETERMAN AND OTHERS

In 1781, Lord Fairfax made Peterman Hartman a grant of the land. Both Hanks and Terry had received title bonds at the time of their taking possession. After 6 years, Hartman returned. Hanks had gone to faraway Kentucky, and had given a deed of trust to Peter Putman to acquire money to make the trip.

Peterman Hartman and Peter Putman then got their heads together and sold the property to Jacob Doll and and Jacob Purgate, and from the purchase money Peter Putman was paid the sum due from the mortgage. The Doll family have an unbroken title to the property down to this day. The point to this story is that Joe Hanke of the story, has been ascribed to being the father of Nancy Hanks, the mother of the immortal Lincoln. Some historians deny the contention, but the State of W. Va. has erected a memorial slab on the old site of Peterman's cabin to commemorate the place of her nativity. Here, prior to her birth, were born several of Peterman and Charlotte (Lazier) Hartman's children.

Here we quote from Peterman's Will:

"I will and bequeath to my son Jacob Hardman all that tract of land on which I now live, Lying on Jesse Hughes run containing 164 acres: also I will and bequeath to my son Jacob my other tract of land containing 101 acres adjoining the above tract, to hold to him and his heirs forever; and as to such other estate, real or personal as I shall die possessed of, I also will and bequeath to my son Jacob Hardman and his heirs forever; and it is my will and intention that should my wife survive me, that she is to have and enjoy her equal third part of all the estate above bequeathed to my said son Jacob during her natural life, and to descend at her death to my son Jacob as above bequeathed."
" I will and bequeath to each of my four sons, Peter,John, Henry, and David Hardman,$100 each to be paid by my son Jacob within five years from and after my decease, and to be paid in property at valuation of two men chosen by the parties." I will and bequeath to my daughters Elizabeth and Catherine, $50 each to be paid by my son Jacob, within 5 years from and after my death in property at the valuation of two men chosen by the parties."
"In witness thereof I, the said Peterman Hartman, have hereunto set my hand and seal this 2nd day of July in the year o of our Lord, 1819."

This was sent to me by by Mrs. Lloyd Wright. You gave me her name.

I plan to send Mrs. Wright copies of the deeds. Thank you again for the information

Hi Lucy,
Glad to hear back from you so quickly! Glad to hear you are still working on genealogy. I am not on Ancestry! I seem to find all I need on FamilySearch.org! I use a software program called "Legacy" to record data for my tree, pedigree charts and family group records.

I will wait to hear if you have anything for William Elza or Nancy. Yes I have also encountered many spellings for Herdman! Elza's records pretty much have the spelling Herdman except for his tombstone has Heardman! In Morrow Co., OH and in Lewis Co WVA and and Harrison Co VA the spelling is Hardman. And then every once in a while I found Hurdman or Hartman! It really has made the research difficult! I thought you were probably named after Lucy Foust Knestrick Hemlinger!

I just noticed I sent you the relationship chart without the dates for your line. I have one with the dates, so I am sending it with this email! I found another connection between you and the May family who still have people who live in Van Wert area today. So I have attached that chart as well. Mary

Hi, Mary, Of course I remember you from Defiance Chapter. I haven't attended meetings in a long time due to health reasons. I havn't given up on genealogy yet. No, I did not know about Alan Eckert's connection. I will study the chart you attached and also look through my records on the Hardman family. It is very frustrating when people list their first name on one census and then on the next census use their middle name. Also I have seen many spellings of the Hardman name. I am named after Lucy Foust Knestrick Hemlinger, daughter of Sarah Hardman Foust. I will get back with you, Mary once I have done some checking of my research. Are you on Ancestry.com? I have a family tree on there (Lucy's Tree New is more up to date than some of my other trees on there. Thanks for contacting me. Lucy

Hi Lucy,
Hope you remember me from the Defiance Genealogy Society meetings. I have missed seeing you! I am a member and currently serve as the 1st Family chairman.

I have been researching the Herdman/Hardman family from Harrison Co., Virginia (later Lewis Co WVA), who settled in Marion Co., OH (later Morrow Co.,) in 1833, then some on to Van Wert County by 1856 through 1870.

When I visited the Morrow County Genealogical Society website recently I saw you had long ago registered the Herdman/Hardman name!
You also were looking for information about Nancy Herdman/Hardman. I am also seeking information for Nancy, the daughter of Daniel Hardman Sr. and his wife Nancy Fowler. The daughter Nancy would be a sister to your 2nd gr grandmother Sarah Hardman Foust.

William Elsie Herdman age 4 and his mother Nancy age 27 were on the 1860 census in Morrow Co. with Daniel Herdman Jr and mother Nancy Herdman nee Fowler, age 72. Since relationships are not given most researchers have assumed Nancy, age 27 was Daniel Jr.'s wife and Wm Elsie was his son. But I have not been able to find a marriage record for Daniel Hardman Jr until 1861 when he married Mary J Dewitt. Also no marriage record for Nancy aka Ann Herdman/Hardman until 1864 when she married John M Straub (indexed as Stroub). I do not think Daniel Jr. and Nancy were husband and wife. So the big question is "who is the father of Wm Elsie aka Wm Elza?" Elza remained in the care of Nancy after she married John Straub as they are enumerated together on the 1870 US Census.

William E. (sic) age 14 and his mother Nancy Straut (sic), age 37 ended up in Van Wert Co by the 1870 census enumeration in the household of John Straub (indexed as Straut). William E. 's surname on this census is Straut (sic). By 1870 Nancy and John Straub had two daughters Sarah and Dora living in their household, eventually a third daughter, Ida would be born in 1873. Nancy died in 1878 and is buried in Mohr Cemetery in Van Wert Co. Find A Grave MEMORIAL ID 33107605. I have more about Nancy's young daughters, but will share that later.

Did you ever find any more information about Nancy?
Nancy aka Ann was the daughter of Daniel Hardman Sr. and Nancy Fowler, according to Daniel Sr.'s Will written in 1835.
I can't prove the father of Wm Elza. Did your research find any documents that might prove his father?

I have copies of the Hacker's Creek Journal entries for Peter Herdman, father of Daniel Sr. There are typos and date errors in the data for Daniel Sr's family members in these entries. The researchers of these entries have Nancy as Daniel Jr's wife.

I am researching the Herdman's for a family friend Alan Eckert, the adopted son of Denver and Mae Eckert who owned the Meat Packing Plant in Defiance. Alan respected his adopted parents Denver and Mae too much to look for his birth parents while they were living.

So has just, in the last few years, began a search for his birth parents. He has his original birth certificate with his birth mother's name and has in contact with his half-siblings. They knew about him, but had no idea of where to look for him. They were so happy to hear from him, but his birth mother had died in 1995.

Alan has had his DNA tested and it proves his father was one of Lawrence Fair and Minnie nee Herdman Fair's sons (probably Raymond). Minnie Herdman is the daughter of William Elza Herdman and Mary Elizabeth Cotterman. Alan is a gr grandson of Elza Herdman and the gr gr grandson of Nancy Herdman Straub. Elza's tombstone has his surname spelled Heardman, but his death certificate has it spelled Herdman. Elza's obit states his parents were John and Nancy Herdman. But the John Hardman who was Daniel Hardman Sr's son was married to Mary J. Claypool in 1849 and they had children born thru 1871. I think who ever gave the info for Elza's obit confused his step father John with his father?

I have attached a relationship chart for you and Alan Eckert, you are 4th cousins. You and Alan share Daniel Herdman and Nancy Fowler as 3rd great grandparents. Your 2nd grand mother was Sarah Herdman Foust and Alan's 2nd great grandmother was Sarah's sister Nancy Herdman Straub. I was able to construct this chart by following your ancestors back to Van Wert County through their Find A Grave memorials!

I decided to email you instead of calling because this is a lot of information to digest over the phone! Did you ever know Alan Eckert was adopted and connected to you through your Herdman ancestors? I bet not! I will share any research and documents you may not have.

Anxious to hear if you have any documents to prove the father of William Elza!
You can call me anytime, 419-658-2468. Or just email me if that is easier.
Best regards,
Mary Yekisa Scranton
